New Business Fee Studied By Council

An ordinance which would eliminate the $18 uniform business license fee and base the cost of licenses on gross receipts was submitted to the city council for study Wednesday night by City Manager Howard Stites.

Stites said he prepared the ordinance with the aid of John Bazley, economist.

The ordinance defines its purpose as an instrument to "raise revenue for municipal purposes."

Stites declared that this code had been devised as the most equitable way to base the license fee. He explained that under the ordinance, which is only a rough draft, the businesses with relatively smaller receipts would not have to pay the same business license fee as firms doing a much greater volume.

"Now," he said, "a firm doing $30,000 a year pays the same license fee as one doing $500,000."

Stites emphasized that the council had not yet had a chance to review the rough draft. Councilmen reserved comment until after studying the measure.

A close vote loomed on the proposed municipal sales tax after Wednesday night's council study session, as two councilmen espoused the plan, while two others indicated they would oppose it.

W'LAKE GIRL HURT IN FALL OFF HORSE

A 14-year-old Westlake school girl was treated for bruises and shock Tuesday afternoon after she fell from a horse on the path adjoining South Mayfair avenue.

Leona Donovan, daughter of Mrs. Ruth K. Donovan, 1473 South Mayfair, was held overnight for observation in Junipero Serra hospital. She was transferred on Wednesday to Children's hospital in San Francisco.

McKeon Hearing Delayed

Annexation of the proposed 2600-home subdivision, St. Francis Heights, to the city of Daly City will be debated Monday night before the city council at an unofficial public hearing.

While the legal notice slates the hearing for Monday, the council learned at study session Wednesday night that any action taken on the legal holiday (Veterans Day) would not be valid.

Therefore, arguments pro and con will be heard Monday night but the council will postpone action on this matter and other city business until Tuesday night.

For a while this week it looked as though the hearing might be postponed at request of Zita Corporation, subdividers, because of the controversy over annexing the land to the North San Mateo County Sanitation district.

George McKeon of the Zita Corporation said today, however, "We won't ask for a continuance, even though the question of the sanitation district still hasn't resolved itself. We'll just try to make the best possible presentation Monday."

Sewage Board Splits

The sanitation district directors passed a resolution Monday by a 2-1 vote declaring annexation of the McKeon lands to the district "beneficial." Director Thomas Callan, who is also chairman of the county board of supervisors, voted against the measure, declaring it was a "blank check" for McKeon.

Crux of the issue is construction of a sewage transmission line from the McKeon subdivision between Skyline and Junipero Serra to 87th and Washington streets, Broadmoor. Callan maintains the district should not have to finance

SALES TAX DECISION SEEN SOON

Mayor Joseph Verducci could possibly swing the issue. He has indicated interest in the one-cent levy, but Wednesday night called for a public hearing on the matter to allow debate from both sides. He did not express himself one way or the other.

City Manager Howard Stites and City Attorney Frank Blum were directed to set up a public hearing.

Verducci declared, "We've had ample time to study this problem. I feel we should rave a public hearing very soon and make up our minds what we're going to do. If we decide in favor of the tax, we'll have to indicate what the funds are going for."

Chamber Session

Wednesday night's study session was to have included a discussion of the tax with the Daly City Chamber of Commerce, but only one representative of that group, William J. Sweeney Jr., showed up.

He said the Chamber's stand against the levy was already on record. He did, however, urge the council to tell the Chamber in writing the purposes for which the tax would be put.

Speaking out strongly in favor of the tax was Councilman Del Wilson, who described the levy as "equitable."

"Daly City needs a hospital, city hall and library. This is the only way we'll be able to pay for them. I can't see any other form of taxation," Wilson related. He said, however, that he wouldn't go for the sales tax if the county retained any more than five per cent of it.

"Crucial Issue"

Councilman Micheal De Bernardi, who in earlier sessions has indicated a leaning to the sales tax, declared that the "crucial issue seems to be the one-cent tax. It seems to me it's the one-cent tax everybody's objecting to. Maybe it should be a half-cent."

Councilman Paul Hupf expressed disapproval with the tax if it was going to be put into the general fund "to spend willy nilly." He also related that, "creation of special funds is no good if the money can be transferred by council action. Therefore, the sales tax might be an unwise step to take. I'm still undecided."

Also on the apposition side was Councilman Sanford Vickers, who argued that the sales tax would be "takin gmoney from the people with the least ability to pay it."

Hearing on the issue will be set up as soon as possible, Verducci said.

Councilman's Surprise Statement Hits 'Poor Leadership, Morale' Within City

A somewhat veiled statement that could be interpreted as a sharp criticism of the policies of City Manager Howard Stites or Mayor Joseph Verducci was issued Wednesday night by Councilman Micheal De Bernardi.

In a statement made Wednesday night De Bernardi said, "The council has gotten to the point where it must or has relied on one man to furnish it with information...in most instances the council has been almost the last to hear what to some is nothing, to others is vital information."

He also hinted that city employee morale was at a very low ebb, and said that department heads are deathly afraid to talk to councilmen (about city business) for fear of reprisals. If this were true and I think it may be, then we are in bad shape.

"Leadership Poor"

"No business can operate successfully unless there is harmony in its employees. ...If morale is poor, the leadership must be poor. I think this point of morale has expressed itself recently."

De Bernardi went on to score the "unwise" manner in which many city projects were started, others not completed. "If we analyze our position I believe we will find that through lack of information or judgment we have fallen way behind." He did not mention any specific project.

He said "an acute slowdown of processing must be checked and corrected.

"These problems I feel are acute and some action may or may not be taken. If any of you gentlemen have a solution you know where I stand," he continued.

"Majority Rules"

De Bernardi concluded that, "As far as I'm concerned the majority rules. No matter what issue comes before this board if I am in the minority I will work to carry through the majority ruling."

Asked to elaborate on the precise meaning of his statement, the councilman answered, "They know what I mean. If they have any answers maybe it'll bring this thing to a head."

De Bernardi's remarks marked the first public statement by a councilman that could be construed as a strong attack on the city manager's administrative practices.

It also indicated a further split in the council may be in the offing. The first major policy difference on the council occurred last month when Councilman Sanford Vickers was fired from his post on the sanitation district board.

GOP In Clean Sweep Of County Races

Democratic DC Gives Ike Margin

President Dwight D. Eisenhower was the only Republican to crack traditionally Democratic Daly City in Tuesday's election, polling 6561 votes to Adlai Stevenson's 6497.

But Daly City, with 9569 registered Democrats against 5347 Republicans, showed its strongest inclination toward the GOP candidates in years, giving the Democrats only a slight margin on all offices. In previous years, Democratic candidates have usually rolled up two to one margins in this city.

Congressman Arthur Younger was out-polled by Broadmoor tax editor James McKay, 8157 to 6646, making Daly City one of the few cities to give McKay an edge.

Deputy District Attorney Howard Hartley received his strongest support in the county from this area, tallying 6818 votes to 5506 for the re-elected Assemblyman Louis Francis.

A total of 13,437 voters showed up at Daly City's 69 precincts for an 81 per cent turnout of the 15,338 total registration.

Police, Fire Employees Quit Union

Twenty-four Daly City police and firemen have been given honorable withdrawals from the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, Daly City Local 919, in accordance with a recent council ruling banning safety members from union membership.

In a letter from the national employees group, the council learned Wednesday that the following employees had received withdrawals and were no longer affiliated with the union:

2295 Kids, 315 Parents Attend Halloween Fetes

Attendance of 2295 children and 315 praents made Daly City's Halloween celebration the "biggest ever" last week in a series of gala parties sponsored by the Recreation Department and local PTA's.

Festivities were held at Woodrow Wilson, Crocker, Jefferson, Colma, OLPH, Garden Village, the War Memorial Building and Bellevue Hall. Topping the activities were a myriad of costume prizes, games and refreshments.

Among costume prize winners were:

Woodrow Wilson—Girls: Candy Barrett, prettiest; Geraldine Hermosillo, funniest; Frances Utterback, most original. Boys: Richard Hobbs, ugliest; Arthur McMullen, funniest; Raymond Jones, most original.

Bellevue Hall—Girls: Susan Freire, prettiest; Barbara Masie, funniest; Cheryl Newman, most original. Boys: Mike Conaty, ugliest; Micheal Cronin, funniest; Joey Bloberger, most original.

Colma—Girls: Lauriann Sarubbi, prettiest; Debbie Backlund,

WEDDING BELLS rang recently for Daly City Councilman Del Wilson, 44. The new Mrs. Wilson is the former Mary Margaret Betelho, 36, of San Francisco, an employee of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. The couple are living here at 257 Hillside boulevard.

CITE DANGERS TO CHILDREN AT COLMA SCHOOL

Lack of adequate protection for children crossing the Market-Hillside intersection from Colma school drew the ire of Hillside PTA members at Wednesday night's council study session.

As a result of the citizens complaints, immediate action was called for by the council. City Manager Howard Stites said that a school crossing guard might serve as a temporary measure, but declared that traffic signals would probably be needed.

Appearing for the PTA were Arthur Heulse, president, and Marjorie Saltsgaver.

In other items at Wednesday night's study session that will come up for action at Tuesday's regular meeting, the council:

1. Received letter citing Westlake equestrian problem from William Bussenius.
2. Received applications for dance permits from Westlake Lodge, Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Our Lady of Mercy churches.
3. Received applications to

Younger, Dolwig, Francis In

San Mateo county registered a resounding vote for the entire Republican slate this Tuesday, re-electing Congressman J. Arthur Younger and State Assemblyman Louis Francis and sending Richard Dolwig to the state senate.

Controversial ballot propositions A and B on civil service were roundly defeated.

Although the Democrats hold a slim registration majority in the county, the Republican slate of Eisenhower-Nixon polled 98,831 votes to 62,500 for the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket. GOP Senator Thomas Kuchel carried a substantial margin here, as he did throughout most of the state, receiving 90,075 votes to State Senator Richard Richard's 66,361.

In the ninth Congressional district, Broadmoor tax editor James McKay, Democrat, bowed to incumbent Younger 91,973 to 62,090.

Former state assemblyman Dolwig, Republican, easily won the state senate seat from this county, registering 89,066 votes to Harold Robinson's 63,063.

Incumbent 25th district Assemblyman Francis, Republican, retained his office, defeating Howard Hartley, 37,971 to 33,868. This race proved to be the closest in the county.

County proposition A went down 90,190 to 34,628, while B fell by almost the same margin, 87,732 to 40,721.

An estimated 85 per cent of the county's 185,437 registered voters turned out Tuesday.

City, Businesses To Observe Mon. Holiday

City offices and most businesses will be closed Monday, Nov. 12, in observance of Veterans' Day Sunday.

Local American Legion posts and Veterans of Foreign Wars are planning special activities for the veterans observance.

Banks in this area will remain open.

Book Would-Be Robber Here On Vagrancy Count

A 35-year-old unemployed shipping clerk was arrested for vagrancy here Thursday after he came to the police station and told officers he intended to rob a food market on Mission street.

Warren K. Forbes, who gave no address, told police he planned the act because he didn't have enough money for food. Claiming that he intended to simulate a gun, Forbes said he backed out at the last minute because "I was afraid I'd be shot."

Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci ordered Forbes released Friday morning.

Let Bids Next Week For 2 New Grammar Schools

Bids for construction of the Vista Del Mar K-6 and the Vista Grande K-4 schools will be let next week, Superintendent H. Z. Weibel informed THE RECORD today.

Vista Del Mar, located on Southgate avenue, will contain 12-classrooms, a multi-purpose room and an administration building. Vista Grande, to be built at Thiers and Wyandotte streets, will consist of six classrooms plus the two other units.

Slope stabilization at the Vista Del Mar site was put off by trustees after they rejected five bids which they called "too high."

Meanwhile, Weibel indicated the district insurance company has agreed to defend the district in a $25,000 damage suit filed by Mr. and Mrs. James Bullis of 932 Bradley drive. Their property adjoins the Vista Del Mar site and they attributed damages to soil erosion after last winter's rains. The district had hoped to buy the property to bring about a solution to the matter.

Weibel reported that next Tuesday fourth grade students at Westlake school will move into a new classroom at Benjamin Franklin. Seven more Franklin classrooms will be finished early in December, he said, which will allow the transfer of students from other crowded schools.

Trustees will act on six bids for appraisal of the Abraham Lincoln site at next Wednesday's meeting. Once the appraisal is completed the district will forward its estimated fund needs to state officials.

In other negotiations, trustees are awaiting a report from Zita Corporation engineers on the 276-acre St. Francis Heights subdivision. They seek three 10-acre sites on the property in addition

Garbage Meeting Cancelled

Indicating a possible "ace in the hole" the Daly City Scavenger Co. cancelled their scheduled meeting yesterday with the county and other north end cities.

Purpose of the meeting was to have been discussion of a plan by the Daly City Scavengers whereby they would join with scavengers from South San Francisco and San Bruno on a bay-side fill and cover garbage disposal operation on South San Francisco tidelands.

Al Sereni, president of the Daly City Scavengers, was asked by the council Wednesday night why the session was cancelled.

A letter to the council from county manager Robert Stallings said the garbage meeting had been postponed "indefinitely."

Sereni said, "I don't know why it was called off. Our attorney (Conrad Reisch) must have called it off. We've been working with South San Francisco but we haven't settled anything yet."

Councilman Micheal De Bernardi declared cancellation of the meeting was a "wise move. I talked to Callan (Supervisor Thomas) and they were loaded for him."

"Can't you enlighten us?" Mayor Joseph Verducci inquired of Sereni again.

"I wouldn't want to make any statement right now," the scavengers president declared.

Originally the meeting was

Fire Volunteers Funds Ruled OK; Vets Queried

Funds allocated to Daly City's volunteer fire department were held a good investment by the council Wednesday night, but the chances for the Veteran Firemen's association receiving any more appropriations appeared dim.

The council voted to release quarterly checks for the volunteers, after an appeal by Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, who said he had already noticed a lack of volunteer attendance at fires because of the council's inquiry on their funds.

Recently the council questioned use of some volunteer funds for what were described as "social" activities.

Kennedy, at the council's request, made a full report Wednesday on the volunteers' fiscal activities, to the apparent satisfaction of the councilmen, who voted unanimously to continue sending the quarterly checks to the companies without delay.

On the issue of the Veteran Firemen's association, primarily a social group, Mayor Joseph Verducci held that the annual $500 allocation, "might be an unlawful gift of public funds."

Councilman Paul Hupf said, "I don't think we can justify their expenditures as city business."

Arguing on behalf of the veterans was Councilman Sanford Vickers, who said, "They've served for years with no pay. The people of Daly City owe them their gratitude."

Verducci urged that before Vickers make his final decision, he read a report on the veterans activities, submitted by Gus Ford.

LOCAL property owners last week began first payments on their '56-'57 property taxes. Responding early was Mrs. Giuseppe Mafrice (right), 429 Santa Barbara avenue, as Clerk Mrs. Anna Ohlendorf completes the transaction. First installment deadline is December 10, while final payments are due by April 10. Bills have been issued for $438,019.52 here.

the line, while the other directors declared that the cost will be defrayed by the $25 per lot annexation fee.

Matter before the council Monday will be annexation of 334 acres of McKeon property, plus smaller adjoining parcels owned by Henry Doelger and Thomas Callan Jr.

Population Boost

McKeon's firm plans to construct from 2500 to 2600 homes which will house an estimated 7500 to 10,000 additional population for Daly City.

The development will also include a $5,000,000 shopping center, with emphasis on professional offices, on 24 acres fronting on Junipero Serra.

McKeon said his company would be ready to start grading "right now" if the council should approve the annexation Tuesday following the hearing. In event grading was started this month, first of the dwellings would be ready for occupancy by April, he estimated.

Hearing on annexation to the sanitation district will be held November 27 before the county supervisors.

Monday's unofficial hearing starts at 8 p.m.

CHIEF ASKS START OF 65-HOUR WEEK FOR DC FIREMEN

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy asked for a definite statement from the council Wednesday night as to when local firemen's work week would be reduced to 65 hours.

The council authorized the shorter work week earlier this year, but Kennedy claimed he could not schedule the men for the shorter hours until he had additional firemen.

City Manager Howard Stites retorted that Kennedy could have instituted the 65-hour week two months ago by making temporary appointments of new men from the eligibility list.

The council called for a conference with the personnel board before making a decision on the issue.

SSF Teacher Injured In Colma Car Mishap

A 26-year-old South San Francisco third-grade teacher suffered minor injuries Tuesday night when she rammed her car into the rear of another auto at the intersection of Junipero Serra boulevard and Old San Pedro road.

Barbara C. Leonard, teacher at the Buri Buri school, was treated at Junipero Serra hospital for facial cuts.

Highway patrolmen said the other driver, Robert S. Wilson, 23, of San Francisco, was attempting to make a left turn when his car was struck.

MOTEL ROBBERY SUSPECT PLEADS HE'S 'NOT GUILTY'

John Allmaras, suspected ringleader of a six-man gang which robbed Bob's Motel in Colma on September 22, pleaded not guilty in superior court Monday.

Judge Murray Draper set December 5 as the date of his jury trial.

A 20-year-old sheet metal worker, Allmaras first was arrested by Chino police and was returned to local authorities October 15.

Mrs. Bernita Theo, motel owner, picked Allmaras out of a police lineup in San Francisco last month. The suspect's alleged mates, however, are still being held by San Francisco police on a series of robbery charges throughout Northern California.

LOCAL MECHANIC, 37, GETS PRISON TERM

Michael Finnegan, a 37-year-old mechanic of 27 Hillcrest drive, was sentenced to San Quentin Monday by Superior Judge Murray Draper for the armed robbery of a Brisbane liquor store on September 2.

Facing a term of five years to life, Finnegan earlier pleaded guilty to taking $452 from store owner George Ellison, 66, who identified him from a lineup.

Finegan's capture was aided by four Brisbane teenagers who saw him fleeing the store carrying a bottle of whiskey. They gave chase, but after he disappeared in traffic, the youths gave his license number to local authorities. Police then staked out his home and after a two-hour wait found Finnegan hiding on a nearby stairway.

SEWAGE BOARD WON'T 'DONATE' $5000 TO VALLEJO

A request by Vallejo Sanitation district for $5000 of the North San Mateo County Sanitation district's Chapter 20 funds was spurned Monday by the board of directors.

Unless the money is spent within the fiscal year, it reverts back to the state. Vallejo proposed that instead of returning the money to the state, it be transferred to their district.

Directors, in rejecting the request, pointed out that plans were on the board for an Alemany sewage line crossing project which will be financed with the funds.

In other action Monday, the board:

1. Approved sick leave and vacation benefits for district employees with at least a year's tenure, providing for one day of sick leave for every month worked and two weeks paid vacation.
2. Passed resolution of commendation for recently ousted director Sanford Vickers.
3. Accepted audit report.
4. Learned that the Jefferson Elementary School district had refused to sign an agreement for correcting sewage facilities at Benjamin Franklin school site. James Morton, sewage district attorney, said that because of the school board's action, any future trouble encountered in the sewage system would have to be corrected by the school district.

ONE ANSWER TO TEEN BAD ACTORS

"Knife Wielding Youth Robs Woman."
"Teen-age Hoodlums Beat, Rob Local Youth, 15."
"Vandals Splash Home With Ink-Filled Eggs."
"Westmoor High Boy Admits Smashing Westlake Park Lights."
"Six Gate Crashers Leave Wreckage at Riders Clubhouse."
"Westlake Special Cop Selected Egg Victim."
"Blame Juveniles for Malicious Mischief Here."
"Rotten Egg Vandals Strike Westlake Home."
"Arrest Jeff Girl On Curfew Count, Socks Her Mother."

These headlines have appeared in our newspaper within a period of three weeks.

They are a stark comment on an increasing trend of juvenile vandalism, rowdyism and hoodlumism that bid well to end in gangsterism.

As of November 1 there were 220 more new delinquency referrals to the county probation department over the same date last year, according to chief probation officer John Cowgill.

San Mateo county youth leaders, conscious of the increase in juvenile bad actors, met recently to lay a groundwork for the formation of a county-wide delinquency prevention committee.

We wish them success in their efforts, but past history of such organizations has shown them to have little effect on many present day punks.

Playful pranks are inherent with youngsters, but some of the idiotic and vicious stunts that have been pulled here lately don't fall in that category.

A chief reason, we believe, that the trend in juvenile delinquency has risen is because the youngster are subject to no authority.

Authority can come in the form of a night stick, a severe shaking, a boot in the pants or a night in the hoosegow.

But this authority no longer exists. Ask a policeman. The story is told that when an offender is taken to the juvenile home for punishment, he generally is back in town again before the officer returns to his desk.

If a police officer speaks in too severe a tone to a youthful miscreant, he is liable to wind up the defendant in court on a brutality charge.

Police are hamstrung, partially because of many do-good organizations who have imposed their will on the laws of the county and state.

Thus, at a time when parental control continues to wane, the citizens are taking further disciplinary powers away from their law enforcement officers.

The juveniles know it. And they flaunt the law intentionally because of this condition.

We can't condone infliction of severe pain on youngsters, but we feel the old axiom about the "rod" still holds true.

If a little more authority were returned to the police officer the incidence of juvenile delinquency would show a sharp decline.

TONS OF SILT clogged the Lake Merced drainage channel last week following Tuesday's rains and wiped out a recently completed $9700 dredging job by U. S. Army Engineers. Inspecting the damage are Leon B. Philips, U. S. Army Engineer, and City Engineer Cyril Weiler. Phillips believes the trouble was a carryover from last winter's storms and has recommended that federal funds again be made available to meet the emergency. The channel handles storm runoff from Daly City and Broadmoor. THE RECORD photo

More Federal Funds Likely For Lake Merced Channel

Possibility of securing additional federal funds for re-dredging the silt-filled Lake Merced drainage channel appeared likely today following a recommendation Friday by a Department of Army engineer.

Leon B. Phillips, U. S. Army hydraulic engineer, inspected the channel with City Engineer Cyril Weiler and estimated that the new trouble was caused by last winter's rains and not the downpour of last week. He has filed his findings with Army Engineers and believes that federal aid will be authorized.

City Foot Bill?

Had last week's problem been attributed to Tuesday's rains, it seemed likely that the city would have to foot the costs of the new dredging.

The six-foot deep channel south of Lake Merced was reported one-third to one-half full of silt after Tuesday's rains, thus virtually wiping out $9700 worth of dredging work recently completed on the channel by U. S. Army Engineers.

Modern Excavation Company, which is awaiting word on Phillips' recommendation, was awarded the dredging contract last month and almost completed the project before the rains obliterated their work. Prior to the dredging, the channel, handling storm runoff from Daly City and Broadmoor, had been filled with silt up to one foot from the top, causing an acute drainage problem here.

Dangerous Situation

becomes completely filled with silt, it would cause Daly City storm sewers to back up and overflow. He added that additional heavy rains would bring sufficient water pressure to carry the runoff from Daly City to the channel. This might cause the water to overflow on Lake Merced boulevard and into the lake.

The channel is 15-feet wide, six-feet deep and eight-tenths of a mile long. It is fed by a 5 x 7 box culvert from Daly City's drainage system. The channel property, however, is owned by San Francisco, making an "awkward situation," according to Weiler.

The city engineer hopes federal funds will be expedited "as soon as possible" to head off what could be a "disastrous situation."

Library Book Drive Deadline Extended

Because of innumerable requests to extend the deadline for contributing books to the Friends of the Library's Book Roundup, Mrs. Robert Woods, president, has announced that books will be accepted past the original deadline. Public response has been such to encourage further extension of this book drive, which will serve to further extend the library's facilities, she explained.

As an additional convenience to those willing to assist in this community cause, various merchants throughout the area have cooperated by setting up a "Books for the Library" barrel or box on their premises.

Mrs. Woods further emphasizes that there is no necessity to contribute a large number of books from personal library shelves., "If every local resident contributed only one or two, the library would benefit by many thousands of interesting volumes. All types of books—history, literature, fiction and reference material—all are welcome," she concluded.

According to best estimates there are about 50,000 sawmills in the United States.

CHRISTMAS CLUB CHECKS REACH $470,000 HERE

Daly City-Colma residents will open their collective mail boxes next week and find nearly a half million dollars there.

Bank of America's three local branches, Daly City, Westlake and Colma, reported today that 3172 Christmas Club checks, totaling $470,505, would be mailed out Thursday, November 15, and should in the homes the following day.

At the Westlake branch, Manager Dennis J. Franco said 900 checks totaling $130,300 will be mailed out. Average amount to be received by each saver is $140.

Daly City branch will send out 1314 checks amounting to $188,092, according to Manager Louis Pisani. Average amount per club is $150.

Manager John Ferrari of the Colma branch reports 958 checks totaling $152,113, or an average of $151 each.

The three local managers said checks are sent in mid-November to help customers get an early start on holiday purchases.

Funds received from Christmas Clubs go to pay for holiday activities, Christmas presents, property taxes, insurance payments and winter vacations, the bankers said.

The banks are currently promoting the Christmas Club accounts for 1957.

First Western Bank in Westlake, newly-opened in March, was not able to start Christmas Clubs this year but has announced that accounts may now be opened for 1957.

'STUDIE' CLASSIC ON DISPLAY HERE

The 1957 Studebaker President Classic with 225 horsepower is the lead model in Studebaker-Packard's sedan line for the low price field which is being shown at Wm. J. Sweeney & Sons, 6800 Mission stret, Daly City.

Almost two inches longer, the restyled models feature two major engineering advancements which are automotive "firsts" in their price classes. These developments are the variable rate front coil spring and the non-slip twin-traction safety differential which gives the driver new control under slippery or adverse road conditions. The Studebaker line for 1957 covers the low price field with 11 models.

The big design of the sedans is sharp contrast to the long, low styling of the Hawk sports-type line to be announced later.

News From Here & There

Christening services were held last Sunday at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church for DENISE MARIE, infant daughter of the KENNETH STEELES on San Diego avenue. Father Allen officiated at the afternoon ceremony, followed by an open house affair at the Steele home. Godparents are Miss Marcella Steele (aunt) and Mrs. Albert Dias Denise, born July 11, is the granddaughter of Mrs. Helen Carozzi of San Francisco.

In the Tupperware and Stanley party lines we find that MRS. ANN PLUMLEY on Lowell and MRS. EDITH HARPER of B street, Colma, recently have added their names to the hostess roster.

Ann had as her guest the Mesdames: Margaret Richie, Lillian Cannon, June Bianchini, Jolyn Leberati, Mary Gilbert, Katherine Snyder, Linda Jones, Ilene Brady, Catherine Alvarado, Rose Kerns and Elsie Madox, with Frances Mueller of San Francisco as their Tupper demonstrator.

Trudy Cox (also of San Francisco) arrived at Edith's home and displayed her Stanley products for Betty Gillian, Mary Frances Abrahamson, Audrey Anderson, Kay Curtis and Idear Mibelli.

Its not very often that the guest of honor at a shower (a baby one) is able to be on hand for his own surprise event. Well, that's the way it happened the other evening for MASTER STEPHEN SKLIVAS of B street, Colma. The shower was given by Mrs. Betty Wiltshire and Mrs. Marie Blackford at the latter's home on Alpine terrace in San Francisco. While three-weeks-old STEPHEN slept, the new mom (DONNA) did the honors of opening gifts for the little heir from her guests, Mesdames Dorothy Hillman, Mary Edgeman, Lydia Kirschner, Amelia, Vivian and Loretta Estrada and Margaret Sklivas (grandmother).

Latest news from B street is from the PETER BIANCHIS who announced the arrival October 25 of their first child MICHAEL PETER. This little guy made his first appearance by way of St. Luke's, weighing in at eight pounds, two ounces.

He is the grandson of Mrs. M. Bianchi of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Thornbrough of Meridian, California, who have been here visiting and patiently awaiting his arrival.

After enjoying a year of civilian life, PHILLIP MORENO of Evergreen has re-enlisted as a staff Sergeant for another four-year tour with the Air Force. PHIL and his wife, JUNE, with their daughter, DEBBIE, left last week for Riverside, where he is to be stationed. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Moreno of Irvington.

A gun-toting cowboy, RICHARD BURGHER, greeted guests one day last week at his home on Abbot, when he celebrated his fourth birthday with a bang-up affair. The party was carried out in a "cowboy" theme, from the table decor right on down to refreshments. Sharing the treats were: Clifford Schaffer, Janet Offenbach, Janice Fierce, cousins Linda Burger and Mike Cunningham.

Holy Angels church was the scene for the Christening of DONALD FREDERIC son of the FRED BLUMES on Vale. Godparents are Miss Florence Benedetti (also a resident of Vale) and Michael Blume, the baby's twelve-year-old brother. Master DONALD'S grandparents are Edward and Margaret Moran and Mrs. Anna Blume of San Francisco.

ROBIN MARIE was the name selected for the first child of the RICHARD M. ISAACS of Alexander. Little ROBIN checked in October 23 at Stanford hospital, tipping the scales at five pounds, fourteen ounces. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Gertrude Bader of San Francisco.

Well, ROYAL did it again . . . On October 23 and 24 and by the end of the 25th, she had given birth to a total of 12 puppies. This canine birth record reads 3-11-10 plus her last litter of 12. Five-year-old ROYAL, a pedigree collie, is owned by Robert and Charlotte Arko on Los Olivos.

In the meantime, CHARLOTTE, an active member of the ABC Club (Always Budget your Calories), achieved her record last week, when she was credited with losing 21 pounds and received the full treatment by appearing as a guest on the Evangeline Baker TV program, then on to Lapollas where she was given a free hair-styling as her award.

The PETERE BELLANDOS of Shakespeare are anxiously looking forward to the home coming any day now of their son, Staff Sergeant WALLACE BELLANDOS, after two years of duty in Okinawa.

Around the end of the month, Atlanta street (Callan Heights) will be bidding goodbye to BOB and OPAL BOSS, who are in the midst of their packing for their move to Salt Lake City, where BOB has been transferred to take over the duties of district manager for Crown Zellerbach Paper Company.

On October 30 at St. Mary's, the FRANK KELLYS on Hillside became parents of their first addition, MASTER MICHAEL, seven pounds, three ounces. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Niebuhr of Buri Buri and Mrs. Rose Berry on E. Moltke.

For her recent ninth birthday JUDY OLIVA on San Diego celebrated the occasion with a combination Halloween and birthday party. Enjoying the double event were Mary Panesi, Pat D'Antonio, Marialyn Ogata, Marilyn Ackille, Jeanie Keefe, Faith Boletin, Kathleen Johnson, Pauline Iwanski, Joann Jensen, Christine Kennedy, Beverly Thor and Terry Knorge.

The Colma Fire Department has scheduled its annual dance for Saturday evening November 24 at the Colombo Hall plus the added attraction of the Dino Benetti orchestra. Admission will be $1.00 per couple, with prizes to be in the form of that green stuff.

Goodbyes were said last week (in the midst of the heavy rain) by Joe and Betty Gillian of C street, Colma. BETTY and the two children are planning to visit with JOE'S parents in Kentucky, while he goes on to Philadelphia for his new job training course with Philco.

JOE (an ex-T/Sgt.) recently returned to civilian life after completing eight years of duty with the Marine Corp.

Lunch at the officer's club at Treasure Island recently marked the formation of a new Libra Club, with each member having a special event to celebrate in the month of October, such as a birthday anniversary, etc. In the group are the mesdames: Connie Nofziger, Frances Riggar, Lillian Bertucci, Sherry Marchetti and your reporter.

That important first birthday we find has recently been celebrated by . . . SCOTT ANTHONY ROBERTSON on Irvington. . . . DANNY MOSERS of Evergreen . . . Christine KEIHE IWAHASHI on San Diego . . . and MISS DARLENE NELSON of Bismark. . . .

Birthdays have also been claimed by . . . ED QUINTEROS (JR.), EARL and DAVID GRAHAM of Abbot . . . LINDA KNOX on Parma . . . SAMMY DANIELE of Bismark . . . PHILLIS FILLBACH on Hillcrest drive . . . SHARON CARR of C street, Colma . . . MRS. LORRAINE O'BRIEN on Miriam . . . and last but not least, MISS KATHY GOLLERON on Tallwood drive, who marked her eighth birthday by sharing her party with (only) thirty guests.

In the anniversary line we hear that . . . a ninth one has come and gone for ALWIN ALTAMIRANO JR. on W. Cavour . . . While just a few days ago the OSCAR HANSONS of Parkview celebrated their twenty-sixth.

Notes from here and there: The BILL KELLERS have sold their home on Thiers and are planning to move down the road to Brentwood. . . . Hear that the Hillside Improvement Club's first costume ball last Saturday evening was a big success. Belle of the ball was none other than "twinkle toes" DON LESHER on Castle, who came attired from head-to-toe as a ballerina (a 220-pound one) . . . That's all for this week. Remember to Call PL 5-5419 with your news.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

With witches and ghosts out of sight and jack-o-lantherns into pumpkin pies, the Halloween season is past history. While it was here, though, the Village children had parades, parties and trick-or-treat outings to their hearts' content. Especially fun were the Benjamin Franklin children trekking in a long colorful line around the block, with all the traditional costumes and masks reminding us of similar occasions long years ago, and bringing a glad thought that at least that part of Halloween hadn't changed.

As usual, there was something doing at the Delfino home on Washington, where Nita, sister Cora, and sister-in-law Cora Beloy coped with the happy confusion of a Halloween party. With Kenneth, Linda and Ginger Delfino as the young host and hostesses, Jake Montez, Jim Buchanan, Christopher and Cecilia Beloy, Laura Mafei, Nina Marie Vigano, Philip and Tommy Crofton, Jack, Donny, Chrissie and Nancy Mitchell, Carmel Navarro, Timmy and Steven O'Brien, Johnny Murphy, and Cathy, Barbara and Ricky Gantert played games, ate, and generally enjoyed themselves.

There have been a good many items recently in newspapers about Those Who Sailed on the Mariposa, and we can add to that list. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Goodner, Ern Goodner's parents, sailed for Australia on the luxury liner, and Marge and Ern deserted Stewart avenue long enough to see them off. Marge said it was a beautiful ship, with very swish Polynesian lounges; there were many farewell parties going on, and the atmosphere was full of that Going-Away feeling which gives any would-be traveler itchy feet. The cruise will go by way of LA, Hawaii, and Tahiti—lucky, lucky people!

Going from the south seas to snow, we are glad to report that Gene Edwards is back home on Louvaine after a rather hazardous hunting expedition. Seems he friend Ralph Krona of SF went up to Sheridan, Wyoming, where they joined other friends for an elk and antelope hunt. On the way back home, a tire blew out, and the car was completely demolished. Nobody was hurt—thanks to safety belts; the belts saved their lives. They managed to find another car, and then got snowbound! This was nothing new for Gene—he was snowbound once before, and had food dropped to him by helicopter. Anyway, they all finally got home, a week late! Oh, yes—they came home with antelope and elk.

Speaking of the Edwards family, we would like to thank Phyllis Edwards and other women like her who spent so many hours at their party headquarters doing all the thousand and five little detail jobs so necessary when a presidential campaign is going on and a vote coming up. We were not aware until just a few weeks ago how much must be done, some at the headquarters, some at home, and how few are willing to do it. It was brought home to us very plainly that elections are not all speeches and meetings, and that any ordinary citizen can have a small share in his country's government by doing an insiginificant (in itself) job for the party of his choice. The insignificant jobs have a way of adding up to an impressive total.

Birthday parties are in full swing lately. Larchmont boy Jack Pattison celebrated his 6th year by inviting Danny and Laurie Cullen, Johnny, Tommy and Eileen Callahan, Douglas High, and Wesley McCann to his party—a very gay affair. . . . Village Lane's Karen Anderson turned 7, and invited a delegation of small ladies to her home for a hot dog barbecue. Joanne Fanfelle, Jill Carleton, Debbie Bocci, Nancy Marconi, Chrissie Mitchell, Barbara Feld, Stephanie dal Porto, and Wendy Lee Morris were the guests. . . . A 5th birthday for Cathy Meade of Madux saw Mona Doyle, Gail Hughes, Nancy Mitchell, Dana Chichester, Margaret and Eddie Box, and brother Pat Meade gathered around the table enjoying birthday cake, plus added excitement opening presents, playing games and showing party favors to guest-collecting mothers when the party was over.

A painting streak seems to have hit everybody lately. Corinne and Mayo Bryce's Garden Lane home is now brown, and we saw Larry Doyle swishing white paint over his Ellis abode. Vern and Jean Box of Maddux now have a yellow living room, and the Vince Cauchi home on Wildwood is now two shades of brown with acqua trim. Sprucing up for the holidays, yes?

Accidents around town happened to Avis Pattison who was stung by a bee, with a very nasty allergy reaction to said sting, and to Corinne Bryce, who had one of her fingers very painfully caught in a door. Almost every family has had its share of the cold or flu or whatever, and Manuel, janitor extraordinary at GV School, had a bad back for a while. We are glad to report that young John Chiosso of Foothill, hospitalized with an ear infection, is getting better, according to our latest information.

It's not every father who gets a new son for a birthday present, but Wilbur Robertson did. Wilbur, Jr., will share birthdays with his Dad from now on, and guess who'll get the lion's share of the celebrating! The young man, weighing 6 lbs., 11 oz., arrived to live on Nimitz with mother Edith, sisters Carolyn and Peggy, and brother David.

Up on the hill, another boy Villager has been added to the Larchmont household of Ira and Donna Boyd. Daniel Alan is his name, 7 lbs., 10 oz. is his birth weight, and delighted is his family. Said family also includes Barbara, David and Janie, very important members.

Around and about: Hortense Sundman hopes to be in her new Millbrae Highlands home by Christmas. Even though she'll no longer be a Village Laner, she'll still be teaching here and staying on in her church group. We're glad; Hortense is a person the Villages shouldn't lose . . . Being courious, we wonder who owns that lovely pink sleek Cadillac we've seen about? . . . The Broadmoor Community Center sign has given up hope completely, and is now relaxing at the bottom of the White-87th street sign . . . . Louise Sick and Pearl South, ex-Villagers, returning from the southern hinterlands to see and talk with friends at the Presbyterian Women's Bazaar—and to buy, too . . . The Del Guymons hosting a Foothill block dinner, with Mabs and Vic Guz, Fran and Frank Dethelfsen, Ruth and Trevor Jones, Doris and George Chichester, and Vivian and Bob Leech all around them, enjoying a barbecue and the fun this group always has together.

More birthdays: Susan Wilson of Maddux has now reached the special age of 10, and had a sort of triple birthday celebration. On Friday night, she was taken out to dinner at El Prado by her grandparents visiting here from LA, on Saturday she had a party, and on Sunday she had a family dinner complete with all the relatives. The Saturday party meant a trip to the fun house, where Susan and guests Vicki Guz, Cathy Leech, Ralpha Box, Lynn Cookson, Jill Knutila, Kathy Wilson, Jane Wagaman, Susan Ecker, Judy Fanfelle, Jane Miller, Patty Young, Rochelle Belluomini, and Linda Kelleher had a riotous time of it all.

Special things: The kick-off meeting for the Friends of the Library, where we had a chance to meet and hear George Mardikian, one of the most sincere people we've ever listened to . . . The October pack meeting of Cub Pack 259, where a special placque award for the Scout-O-Rama display went the rounds of admiring boys and parents, being polished by many a shirtsleeve as it went

. . . . The sunset serenity of Mt. Tamalpais, and the evening glow that makes Daly City's top-of-the-hill take on a sort of Arabian walled city look . . . . The way looking up at San Bruno Mountain almost any time of day can give you an upword lift of spirit . . . . How nice it is to be able to walk down the streets in the Villages and wave at nearly everybody, because they are friends. Guess Thanksgiving came early this week.

Something For Everyone

Tolstoy's classic novel, WAR AND PEACE, called by some the greatest novel ever written, has now been filmed and is being shown in cities throughout the country. Local screening of the picture has brought renewed interest in this book at the Daly City Public Library.

Books from which motion pictures have been made are always popular, but this year seems to have brought more than a fair share of such movies. The fact that many of them are being hailed as outstanding pictures has redoubled interest in reading the original books.

Film Versions

Among the classics which have been filmed recently are: MOBY DICK, by Herman Melville; Jules Verne's 20,000 LEAGUES UNDER THE SEA; Shakespeare's RICHARD III; Irving Stone's LUST FOR LIFE, on the famous painter, Vincent Van Gogh. Other well-known books from which successful motion pictures have been made include: THE BAD SEED, by William March; BHOWANI JUNCTION, by John Masters; THE SEARCHERS, by Alan Le May; and the current favorite, THE SEARCH FOR BRIDEY MURPHY, by Morey Bernstein.

The recently-published two-volume edition of KIPLING: A SELECTION OF HIS STORIES AND POEMS, has sent many readers back to that author's many famous works which have been filmed. Sir Walter Scott is another favorite author who has been well represented on the screen: IVANHOE and QUENTIN DURWARD are only two of his classics to appear in recent years. Franz Werfel's THE SONG OF BERNADETTE, a fabulous best-seller, was also a fine motion picture a number of years ago and is still remembered by many movie-goers.

Future Epics

Recently mention has been made of filming several of the current best-sellers: THE SEA-WYF, by J. M. Scott; THE HURRAH, by Edwin O'Connor; DON'T GO NEAR THE WATER, by William Brinkley; and the old favorite, AROUND THE WORLD IN EIGHTY DAYS, by Jules Verne.

The library also has hundreds of other well-known books and plays that have been the bases for motion pictures. Television, too, has been the medium for presenting many current, as well as classic, books: FORBIDDEN AREA, by Pat Frank, is a current favorite recently seen here; TREASURE CRUISE, AND OTHER CRUNCH AND DES STORIES, by Philip Wylie, contains many of the stories used on the current TV series; and, of course, such favorites as Jim Bishop's THE DAY LINCOLN WAS SHOT and Walter Lord's A NIGHT TO REMEMBER.

Now Available

The books mentioned above are available through the Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission street, or the Westlake - Broadmoor Branch Library, 34 Park Plaza drive, in the Westlake shopping center. Don't forget the Branch Library is now open daily, Monday through Friday, from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m., an hour longer than before. In addition, the branch is open Monday, Wednesray and Friday evenings from 7 until 9 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. Remember, your public library has something for everyone!

GIVING their huge cake the royal treatment following their October 7 marriage at Holy Angels Church in Colma are Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fontana of 143 Citrus avenue. The couple recently returned from a honeymoon in Southern California.

Newlywed Fontanas Back From Southern Cal Trip

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fontana of Daly City recently returned from a honeymoon in Southern California and are making their temporary home at 143 Citrus avenue.

The couple was married October 7 at Holy Angels Church in Colma in a ceremony officiated by the Reverend William P. Quinn.

Bride is the former Wanda R. Maynard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maynard, 478 Price street. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gisberto Fontana, 143 Citrus avenue.

The new Mrs. Fontana, 19, a graduate of Jefferson, is employed with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Her husband, 21, an alumnus of Riordan High of San Francisco, works for Laurence J. Nannini Builders.

The bride wore a full-length gown of satin chantilly lace and tulle with train and a finger-tip veil with a seeded pearl crown. For a bouquet she carried a cascade of Stephonotis with a white orchid center.

Her sister, Mrs. Lillian Hensley, was matron of honor, and Bruno Galassini, cousin of the groom, was best man. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Velda Maynard, sister-in-law of the bride, Olivia Fontana, sister of the groom, and Carla Cady, sister of Mrs. Velda Maynard.

The matron of honor and senior bridesmaid wore turquoise, brocaded dresses, all ballerina length.

A reception, highlighted by a five-piece band, was held following the ceremony at VFW Hall in San Bruno.

Daly City Leatherneck Stationed In Virginia

He is the son of Walter E. Sanford of 6925 Mission street in Daly City.

Before entering the service in October 1948, he attended South Junior High school, Quincy, Massachusetts, and was employed by the U. S. Post Office in San Francisco.

Two Daly City Youths Nominated For Nov. 20 Service Academy Exams

Congressman J. Arthur Younger recently nominated two Daly City youths to take preliminary examinations on November 20 for entrance into the U. S. military academies.

They are Robert Grubb, son of Mrs. Eva M. Grubb, 1468 San Diego avenue, and George M. McNutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George O. McNutt, 92 West Cavour street.

Grubb graduated from Jefferson High School last June. McNutt is a senior at Jefferson and a tackle on the varsity football team.

Thirty-five youths from San Matee county will take the tests, according to Congressman Younger.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

The first part of this week's effort is going to be too early and the latter half is coming to you too late, but this is the exasperating way that various interesting productions have been breaking lately.

The Paris Ballet of Lycette Darsonval, now on its first tour of the United States, will make its only Bay Area appearance of the season on Sunday afternoon, November 18, at 2:30 p.m. at the Curran Theatre. This is the second attraction of the Spencer Barefoot Celebrity Concerts.

Heading the company is Lycette Darsonval, premiere danseuse of the Paris Opera Ballet. A glance at the five selections comprising her program indicates that it will be an interesting resume of the traditions of ballet at the Paris Opera from the days of the 16th century court assemblies of Catherine de Medici to the present time.

Fatal Combat

We are particularly interested in "Le Combat" with music by R. de Banfield. A year or so ago another company performed this work, which tells how the Christian warrior Tancred meets the pagan girl Clorinda, how they fall in love and separate, only to meet again in fatal combat. It is seldom that a ballet so impresses us that we'd just as soon sit through it immediately, but that was the effect of "Le Combat."

Other familiar selections will be the Pas de Deux Classique Espagnol (we assume this is from "Don Quixote") and the third act of "Sylvia." All in all, it should be a very distinguished program.

That same weekend, Spencer Barefoot will present the Yugoslav State Company ("Kolo") comprising fifty-five singers, dancers and musicians in its production "Slavonic Rhapsody," at the Opera House for two evening performances, November 16 and 17.

Imagination Challenged

Also on its first American tour, this company has caught the imagination of critics and audience alike by the vigor and grace they bring to their unusual dances, which are compounded of Greek, Turkish, Hungarian, Rumanian, Italian and Moslem influences. To be able to see two such widely divergent types of dancing in the same weekend is a real treat.

It's a little late to comment on the San Francisco State college presentation of Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra," now just a memory. Maybe we were carried away by Shaw's lines, although familiarity should have nullified some of their effect, but we do know that we are going to watch their subsequent productions with considerable interest. If they meet the high standards set in "Caeser," this year will be the best yet.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

NEW STUDIOS FOR KSAN . . Located on busy Market street right in the heart of San Francisco, KSAN's new $500,000 television and radio center is rapidly nearing completion. The four story building with 24,000 square feet will house both the television and radio facilities of Channel 32. Recently we were taken on a tour of the building by Bob McLaughlin, Program Director for KSAN-TV.

On the second floor are located the offices of the staff, a viewing room and the radio department. On the first floor are the television studios and control room.

One feature that we particularly liked is that one wall is made almost entirely of glass through which the public may watch the live telecasts. With the bright lights . . . the cameras moving back and forth . . . . the floor director with ear phones talking to the control room . . . it is really a most exciting experience! Somehow we still have the feeling as we watch a live show in progress, and right beside us a television set, with the same show on the screen, that there is something almost magic about it.

At present Mr. McLaughlin told us that about fifty percent of KSAN-TV's programs are live. As many people have yet to see their live telecast, we feel certain that this viewing area will prove to be very popular.

CHILDREN'S CORNER . . . . KQED has produced another fine children's television program in the new live series "Meet Mr. Piano" (Thursdays, 6 p.m.) featuring Kenneth Barry of the Oakland Public Schools. We think the program is outstanding in sereval respects. Mr. Barry has a pleasant approach with the children and manages to hold their interest during the entire half-hour. He also skillfully makes the youngsters a part of the program as he questions them during his explanations. Some of the camera angles were particularly outstanding, such as the picture showing the youngster's hands playing the notes as the children call them out. The verdict of our 8 and 9 year old critics who watched the program with us. "We like it."

LIVE EVENING SHOW ON K-PIX . . . . Recently we watched an hour long live telecast which originated at the studios of KPIX. Scheduled at the important evening viewing hour of 7 p.m., the musical variety show featuring talent from around the bay area. We feel such a program is a wonderful way to showcase the fine talent that is available here, and certainly hope that KPIX will be able to schedule more live shows featuring local talent. Particularly we would like to see more shows with studio audiences so that bay area residents don't have to travel all the way to Hollywood or New York to see their first live telecasts.

PROTECTION
FOR A LIFE TIME!

Don't you wish there was a serum . . . one that could protect your child for a lifetime? Until science comes up with such a serum, the best protection you can give him is a good education in health and safety.
In his school he gets instruction in nutrition and growth, in body functioning, in cleanliness, in the importance of medical and dental examinations. He learns and practices safe living in shop classes, in first aid courses, on the school bus, through physical education and recreation programs. But more than that, his teachers know that safe and healthful living includes mental and emotional well being . . . attitudes and habits that protect for a lifetime. Schools have changed since you were young? You bet they have. Why not visit them and see hiw much?

MISS MASON BECOMES MRS. ALFRED J. HURT

In a double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, October 20, at the Holy Angels church in Colma, Miss Dolores Sorita Mason changed her name to Mrs. Alfred Joseph Hurt. The rites were performed by Father William Quinn.

The bride, daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Harry Riggar of 170 School street, was given in marriage by her father. Her long-sleeved white gown was floor length, designed of chantilly lace with a sabrina neckline and a long train with a bustle effect. She carried a Bible bouquet with three large white orchids, and a juliet crown of old fashioned orange blossoms with a pearl background secured her veil.

Preceding the bride down the aisle was her sister, Harriet, as a flower girl, who wore a white street-length dress with a wine sash and carried a basket of tiny yellow chrysanthemums.

The attendants were Miss Nancy Gommeringer as maid of honor and Mrs. Ernest Morino and Miss Gloria Gordiano as bridesmaids. They wore identical ballerina length wine crystalette brocade gowns in a princess line with a bustle effect, with matching accessories and carried yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

The benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hurt of Langehorne, Pennsylvania, chose Raymond Grado as best man. Guests were seated by Otto Gehrmann and William Cullens, ushers.

A reception at the Forest Hill Club in San Francisco for about 125 friends followed the ceremony. Mrs. Riggar greeted them in a ballerina length dres of mauve lace and nylon net with matching accessories, to which she added a pink orchid corsage. The benedict's mother appeared in a powder blue lace dress with black accessories with a pink orchid corsage.

A honeymoon trip to Las Vegas and South California preceded the couple's return to their apartment on East Moltke.

Special guests were Dr. Elizabeth Jenkins, who is attached to the General hospital in Long Beach, and Mrs. Ernest Morino, who came from San Diego for the wedding of her childhood friend.

The bride attended high school in San Diego, University of California in Berkeley and City college. She is employed by the Western Knapp Engineering company as an architectural draftsman.

The groom is a graduate of North East High School in Philadelphia. He served four years in the United States Navy and is now associated with Henry Doelger Builders. He has two sisters, Barbara and Betty Ann Hurt of Langehorne, Pennsylvania.

Colma PTA Sets 24th Birthday Party On Tuesday

A cordial invitation is extended by the Colma PTA of Jefferson Elementary school to all parents and friends to attend the 24th birthday anniversary of the unit next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room.

H. Z. Weibel, Jefferson Elementary School District superintendent, will speak on "Our Investment in America Through Education."

Sewing and Sunshine meeting will be held Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Don Lesher, 417 Castle street. For additional information call Mrs. Edw. J. Dennis, co-hostess, at PL 5-6277.

Girl Scout Troop 154 Stages Halloween Fun

Costume prizes went to Sharon Gentile for the "most original" attire and Judy Anderson in the "funniest" category.

During the party initiation ceremonies were held for the younger girls. Refreshments and games completed the evening.

TOASTING their wedding ceremony October 20 at Holy Angels Church in Colma are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Hurt during the reception that followed at the Forest Hills Club in San Francisco. She is the former Dolores S. Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riggar of School street. The groom, former resident of Pennsylvania, is employed with Henry Doelger Builder Inc.

3 Sermons Start St. Martin's 'Every Member Canvass' Drive

Three sermons by local laymen will introduce the "Every Member Canvass" fund drive this month at St. Martin's Episcopal church, emphasizing the duty of the individual to return to God a portion of His gifts.

U. R. "Jack" Kendree, past president, Daly City Chamber of Commerce, discussed the proper use of one's time Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service in Westlake auditorium. This Sunday, Frank Blum, city attorney, will speak on how best to employ one's talents, and on November 18, D. R. Wainwright, warden, or head layman of the congregation, will explain the true function of treasure.

Hubert Arthur is chairman of the canvass committee, which will meet next Tuesday to plan its campaign. New information available to canvassers this year will include definite plans and sketches for the church building to be erected at Southgate avenue and Bradley drive.

Seating space for 33 persons as well as office, classroom, and kitchen facilities are embodied in plans recently prepared for Bishop Karl Morgan Block by the Sausalito firm of Architects Arnold and Francis A. Constable. The bishop's committee met Sunday and approved them, with minor changes. Gordon Raeside, building committee chairman, will present them to the congregation this Sunday. Comments, suggestions, or inquiries about them will be welcomed by the vicar, the Reverend Allen J. Downey, PL 6-3514, or any committee member.

Bayshore-Midway PTA Holds Annual Halloween Carnival

Witches, goblins and ghosts took over Bayshore and Midway schools last week at the annual Halloween carnival sponsored by the Bayshore and Midway PTA, with prizes going to the best costumes designed by children.

Announcing festivities in store for the children, Mrs. John Pleskach, president, called upon the members to assist membership chairmen in campaigning for parents and friends to join the PTA. Mrs. Pleskach explained the necessity of the fund-raising activities, which defray the costs of the free movies, special parties and student aid programs.

A hot lunch was scheduled for children yesterday, with Mrs. Fred Pajkos heading the committee as chairman. Mrs. Roy Anglen, vice-president, was co-chairman of the event. Those assisting were Mesdames: Dominik Caloiaro, Frank Barbara, Marse Datzman, Earl Robertson, John Pleskach and Wayne Liebert.

Free movies will be shown to the children this month, in appreciation of their efforts in the membership campaign. Mrs. Frank Barbara accepted chairmanship of this activity.

Following an appeal by Madelaine Fuller, of the Sierra Marina School for Retarded Children, Mrs. Pleskach announced that cookies would be sold at the regular monthly meeting next Wednesday in the auditorium of Bayshore school to assist the Siera Marina School in purchasing needed equipment.

The theme of this meeting will be "The T of PTA," and the faculty has charge of the entertainment. Mrs. James Sharpen, music director, plans a musical program featuring school children.

Serafini-Boyle Engagement Told At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barnes of San Francisco announced the engagement of their niece, Carol Serafini, to Pfc. William Boyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boyle, 663 San Diego avenue, Saturday in a dinner party held at Panellis.

The couple plan to be married next June.

The groom is presently stationed with the U. S. Marine Corps at Port Chicago. Miss Serafini is employed with the California Packing Corporation.

OLPH Mothers Speed Holiday Bazaar Plans

With the holiday season rapidly approaching, Mothers' Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help school is busily working on plans for the annual December Bazaar. From all reports, booth work is moving along and many surprises are in the offing.

The last gay touch has been put on a festive apron and all is in readiness for the apron contest, scheduled during the recess of the November meeting. Mrs. Catherine Ricci, apron chairman, will conduct the judging. The aprons then become the property of the sewing booth, where they will be displayed along with many other items, both practical and fetching, at the December event.

Next Mothers' Club meeting will be Friday night, November 12, at 8 o'clock, in the school auditorium. Fifth grade mothers will assist Mrs. Pat Segali, room mother, in serving refreshments. All members are urged to attend.

Fun & Games Had By Village Students

A good time was had by over 300 grade school children who enjoyed the festive Halloween costume party at Garden Village school given last week by the James L. Snell PTA in cooperation with the Daly City Recreation department.

The children gathered in the school multi-purpose at 7 p.m. for an evening of fun and entertainment, which included prizes and refreshments. The party started with a talent contest, followed by the showing of several Disney cartoons. Next was the grand march before the judges, who presented first and second prizes for the best costumes in each of seven groups ranging from nursery school youngsters through sixth grade students. Candy and ice cream were served to all at the finale of the event.

Skyline B'nai B'rith Slates Meet Tuesday

Jeff Hi Board Launches Survey For '61-'62 Needs

Superintendent Edward D. Morgan of Jefferson Union High School district this week launched a planning survey of district needs through 1961-62, which he will present to trustees in January prior to a spring bond election to finance construction of three new schools.

He told trustees Monday night the survey will determine the program needed in the next five years to meet bulging enrollment figures as forecast in the county-wide survey.

Although the district is eligible for state funds in about three years, the superintendent said the bond issue next spring would eliminate the necessity of another bond election around the time state aid is available.

Overall Needs

Morgan indicated the survey will include staff, educational and physical needs of Jefferson and Westmoor and the proposed Coastside plants in Sharp Park and Linda Mar.

Westmoor is scheduled to open next fall and construction is expected to start o nthe Sharp Park site shortly thereafter. Construction of the school in Linda Mar will begin about eight months later, the superintendent estimated.

Trustees are awaiting word on the Sharp Park appraisal, which site they hope to expand from its current 27 acres. Morgan requestplans of the Division of Highways for widening Highway No. 1 near the site, and learned that a portion of property on Bella Vista avenue near the school was abandoned a few years ago.

Four-Year Basis

To aid the survey, Morgan has sent a letter to local elementary districts asking for a report on current enrollments which he will project on a four year basis. He also forwarded a map of the district to state and federal officials and urged they notify him on all new subdivision plans within the district.

Meanwhile, the superintendent recently conferred with the Housing and Home Finance agency to consider requirements for federal funds. In order to qualify the district must have three percent of its students federally connected . . . that is, their parents must work for the government. The Laguna Salada and Bayshore elementary districts recently qualified for federal aid and Morgan believes the district also could become eligible.

Westmoor Problem

Reminding that the district faces an "overcrowded situation the next nine years," Morgan particularly cited Westmoor's status next fall. Every available space now being constructed will be used for classrooms, he said, including an exercise room in the gym, the music building and two custodial storage rooms.

Trustees expect to hear a report on the recent safety survey at Jefferson during their next meeting as the district received the state's recommendations this week. The district urged the survey at the overcrowded plant to help determine its request for state aid.

Trustees heard a construction report on Westmoor at Monday's meeting, showing that more than one third of the project is complete. Glenn South, Westmoor principal, will present furniture needs for the new school at the next board meeting.

17th District CCPT Schedules Panel Session On Delinquency

"Where does PTA fit into the picture of juvenile delinquency?" This question will be explored by a panel of experts at the monthly meeting of 17th District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Thursday, November 15, at Encinal school in Menlo Park. The 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. session will be under the auspices of the District's public welfare department, directed by Mrs. L. E. Engleman of Redwood City.

Panelists will include John S. Cowgill, San Mateo county's chief probation officer; Peter Bolich of the sheriff's office; and Bernard F. Woods, College of San Mateo teacher and member of the county commission on children and youth. Mrs. Lester Nettle, juvenile protection chairman for 17th District, will be moderator.

All four took important parts in the county-wide Town Hall meeting on juvenile delinquency March 10, at which Mrs. Nettle, a member of the College of San Mateo board of trustees and a past president of the League of Women Voters of San Mateo, was general chairman.

Arrest Local Butcher On Drunk-In-Auto Count

Jimmy Throne, 49-year-old butcher of 33 Shakespeare street, was arrested here late Saturday night on a charge of being drunk in and about an auto.

Throne posted $50 cash bail and is scheduled to appear before Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci next Tuesday.

STATE SUSPENDS 4 LOCAL DRIVERS, SETS PROBATION FOR 3

Licenses of four local drivers were suspended and three others were put on probation this week by the California Department of Motor Vehicles.

Suspensions were ordered for John G. Baldwin, 11 Oakmont drive; George H. Buttle, 226 Crocker avenue; Ralph Ciarlanti Jr., 772 Templeton avenue, and Linda Ann Workover, 129 Amapola street, Sharp Park.

Placed on probation were Robert G. Dickson, 538 Crocker avenue; Max Singer, 95 Lakemont drive, and George A. Woita, 14 Beta avenue.

THIEVES RAID THREE WESTLAKE CARS BY SMASHING WINDOWS

A new outbreak of petty thievery was reported in Westlake last week as culprits broke into three cars parked outside apartments.

Biggest loss was suffered by Mrs. Juline Ferrari, 20 Forest Grove drive, apartment 15, who found the front window of her car smashed and a car radio missing from the glove compartment.

Grace Grahem, a secretary of 181 Park Plaza drive, apartment 20, and Marguerite McKemy, 81 Park Plaza drive, apartment 11, said their cars were invaded in the same manner but nothing was taken.

SAFETY NEWS

DEATH STALKS AT DUSK

This isn't the title of a TV chiller, it's an all too true statement about the behavior pattern of one of our most dangerous real life killers—night traffic accidents.

This statement was made by Inspector Henry Sundermann of the Daly City police department. In an average year the National Safety Council estimates that the mileage death is three times as great at night as in the daylight hours. And surprisingly, the peak hours for fatal traffic accidents are from 5 to 8 p.m., the hours of dusk and early darkness.

Sundermann said the heavy traffic caused by homeward bound workers undoubtedly is a contributing factor to the deadliness of this three hour period. But he placed much of the blame on the failure of many people to make an adequate transition from daylight to night time driving and walking habits.

This is especially true at this time of year when night falls earlier. Workers going home, who make up the bulk of traffic from 5 to 8 p.m., have been used to making the journey in daylight during the summer months and many of them try to cover the distance in the same time and manner as they did in summer.

Drivers and walkers must recognize the difference between daytime and nighttime. Visibility is decreased at night, and the two major ways both walkers and drivers can compensate for this is to decrease their speed and increase their alertness.

Inspector Sundermann advised drivers to turn on their driving lights at the first hint of dusk and to be on the lookout for pedestrians and bicycle riders. He warned walkers not to trust their judgment too far in estimating the speed of an approaching car by its headlights at night. He also advises them to walk on sidewalks or on the left side of the road where there no sidewalks, and to carry a flashlight or something white or reflectorized so motorists can see them.

DC Garden Club Founder's Day Next Tuesday

Daly City Garden Club will hold its Founder's Day celebration next Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. C. M. Yohn, club president, 292 Hillside boulevard. The program starts at 8 o'clock.

Feature of the evening will be installation of new officers, including Mrs. Dick Hunter, first vice-president; Mrs. F. C. Salcedo, secretary, and Dick Hunter, treasurer. Mrs. D. Bunkley, club founder, will preside over the installation.

The club this week is participating in the Hillsdale Flower Festival, which began Monday and runs through this Saturday at Hillsdale Mall.

Also coming up is a Christmas Tea, from 1 to 4 p.m., November 28, at the home of Mrs. H. DeLeon, 100 Huntington drive, San Francisco.

W'lake Woman Wins $500 Bond On Columbus Day

Mrs. J. Salsman, 106 Westlawn avenue, won a $500 savings bond at the recent Columbus Day celebration sponsored by the Italian-American Federation of San Mateo county, according to Dan Casentini, organization president.

Flower Expert Slates Rose Society Address

"How To Improve Your Rose Garden Next Year" is the subject by Andreas Neick for discussion at the meeting of the San Francisco Rose Society this Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Horticultural Center at City College, Ocean avenue and Tara street. Heick will emphasize the particular rose varieties which grow well in San Francisco.

Mrs. Charles Cochran, active rosarian and prize rose arranger, will speak on "Membership in the San Francisco Rose Society Saves You Money!"

This meeting will be of great interest to persons planning to plant new rose bushes next year. The public is welcome and coffee will be served.

Wildwood Residents Hold Halloween Party

A Halloween "block party" was held at 984 Wildwood avenue last week as ten families assembled for traditional fun and games.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Robinson and their children, Billy, Linda and Shirley. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bernard and Susann, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kruger and David and Barbara, Mrs. and Mrs. Ed Dunbar and Kathy, Mr. and Mrs. James Storman and Michael, Mark and Kevin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown and Melody and Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Richard McHugh and Kathleen and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. George Unsworth and Teri, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Prenovitz and Robin, and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Palmini and Richard.

Holy Name Society Sets Father-Son Breakfast

Sons of members of St. Thomas More Holy Name Society will attend 8 o'clock mass, communion, and then join their fathers at breakfast in the church hall this Sunday.

Honorable Thomas L. Bocci, municipal judge of Northern Judicial District, will address the meeting, according to President Gus Mazzon. Judge Bocci's subject will be, "Christian Influence in the Judiciary."

The St. Thomas More group meets for breakfast after the second Sunday mass each month, except in July and August, and sons attend three times a year.

Arnold Presides At 1st Cub Pack 243 Meeting

Joe Arnold, new Cubmaster of Pack 243, presided over the first pack meeting last month in OLPH auditorium, with a record crowd turning out for a "very successful" Halloween party.

Games were played and costume prizes were awarded to Bobby Dunn, the cutest; Danny Murphy, the best; Gerry Nolan, the funniest, and Bobby Kovenich, most original. Judges were Walter Murphy and Andrew Castle.

Any boy 8 to 11 years of age interested in joining the pack should call Arnold, PLaza 5-4410.

Thief Makes $131 Tool Raid On Electrician

A quick-moving thief sneaked into the rear of New Joe's restaurant in Westlake last week and escaped with a box of tools valued at $131, according to police.

Victim of the theft was an electrician, John J. Batbie, 252 Sequoia street, South San Francisco, who was working in the restaurant at the time. Reporting the loss Friday, he estimated the theft occurred between Monday and Wednesday.

Westlake Thief Nets $319 In Suitcase Haul

A thief raided an unlocked car parked opposite the Westlake Lodge Saturday night and walked off with a suitcase and clothes valued at $319.

Victim was James Dokos, 131 Crestwood Drive, apartment 21, manager of a local business firm. He told police he parked his car at 9:30 p.m., and upon returning less than 30 minutes later he discovered the loss.

In the suitcase were a brief case and a letter carrier case "containing some very valuable business papers," he said. Clothing items taken were two suits, four shirts, three neckties, a bathrobe, a pair of slippers, an electric shaver and a book entitled, "Never Plead Guilty."

DRUNK CHARGE HITS SELF-TERMED 'MORON'

A 42-year-old local resident who listed his occupation as a "moron" was booked here on a drunk charge late Saturday night.

Police said they found Charles R. Covell, 70 Acton street, "staggering on the sidewalk" near the Vale street and Bruno avenue intersection.

Judge Thomas L. Bocci set bail at $25 cash or $50 bond. Covell is scheduled to appear in municipal court next Tuesday.

FOURTH GRADE
MRS. GARDNER

Our class is looking forward to a field trip this week to the Cow Palace. We are eager to see the many kinds of livestock on exhibit. Some of us have never been close to these farm animals before, so it will be a new experience.

One of our classmates, Cheri Plumley, is ill, and will have to be away from school for quite a while. We have written letters to her and we are planning other ways to help make the time go more quickly for her.

FIFTH GRADE
MRS. LEIBE

Bill McKinney has been especially interested in forests and their products. Recently he wrote "Forests Are Important" as a project for his free time.

Our country needs forests for the many useful things we use every day. Forests provide a permanent supply of raw materials for industry and steady jobs for our increasing population. Our country also needs forests to protect vital watersheds; to supply forage for domestic livestock; to furnish a home for fish and wild game; to provide hunting, fishing, camping, hiking, and many other kinds of healthful recreation.

Our class has begun to study units of measure in Arithmetic. We have learned about counting measurements, capacity measurements, weight, length and time measurements.

In Social Studies, we have learned that in old New England, life was very strict. Puritan leaders believed that all children should go to school. Although books were scarce, in 1690 they did use primer books. These books contained prayers, spelling lessons, wise sayings and questions about the Bible.

Acute Equestrian Problem Scored In Letter To City

Measures to correct Daly City's "equestrian problem" were called for by a local resident in a letter to the city council this week.

William Bussenius, 775 South Mayfair avenue, declared the equestrian problem had become "most acute. I feel this is particularly applicable to the 'bridle path' adjacent to Alemany boulevard between Skyline and Lake Merced boulevards."

Among problems cited by Bussenius were:

1. Lack of an adequate bridle path.
2. No signs of warning to protect equestrians.
3. No signs to caution motorists of equestrian travel.
4. No set pattern for equestrian travel.
5. No minimum age for the horse riders.
5. Instances of equestrian injuries, auto mishaps which occurred to avoid striking a horse and rider, horses killed by autos and riderless horses.

He concluded that, "I am aware that this problem is most complex, but I request the city council to take measures to alleviate the conditions. Let's not wait until Daly City has a fatality."

JEFF JOTTINGS

The junior class is beginning preparations for its semi-formal prom, "Winter Fantasy," to be held the night of December 7 in the school cafeteria from 8 to 11:30 o'clock. Bill Brown and Earlene Durett, heading the publicity and decorations committees, will be assisted by Gail Duncan, Gloria Pelz, Barbara Giusti, Rhoda Denser, Mary Molinari, Vicki Tomasi, Nancy Young, Laura Robison, Mariane Tomich, Janet Brown, Charlotte Cox, Dixie DuBois, Kay Shannon, Delia Patron, Rose Galoiaro and Reed Price.

Play Tickets

Tickets are now on sale for the fall play, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," scheduled for the Jefferson High school auditorium on the evenings of November 15 and 16. All adults and students are invited to attend and watch this typical Woolcottian adventure in which Sheridan Whiteside is marooned in the home of a small-town hostess as a result of a fractured hip. Surrounded by presents sent by doting admirers, ranging from a mummy case forwarded by the Khedive of Egypt to a crate of penguins shipped by Admiral Byrd, the incorrigible Whiteside telephones Paris and Calcutta on his host's phone, conducts his Christmas radio broadcast in the living room, aided by six choir boys, and generally turns the house topsy-turvy.

Aids Scholars

The C.S.F. has voted to adopt the "B" plan, thus giving students who are able to maintain high grades in non-academic subjects the opportunity to belong to this organization. As a service project, the group intends to coach those pupils who are in need of assistance in certain subjects.

Membership Tea

The Trindians presented their anual membership tea last week. Patricia Tiggert, affiliated with the Westlake branch YWCA, attended and spoke to the group on the purposes and functions of the organization. A large student turnout consisted of Darlene Price, Antoinette Boccoleri, Gladys Grassini, Loretta Bollentini, Phyllis Tomlinson, Alberta Giannin, Ethel Shaw, Nadja Colby, Florence Verducci, Diane Brown, Karen Gerdes, Linda Arthur, Marilyn Ruocco, Marilyn Hanna, Fran Rossio, Mary Ann Pace, Margaret Hoppe, Susan Knedel, Michele Bruseth, Nancy Golladay, Barbara Bauer, Theodora Asuncion, Linda McCowen, Alda Caggiano, Beth Brownlee, Emily Thomas and Johanna Hedvall.

Sewer Worker Here Pleads Not Guilty To Drunk Driving

Wayne G. Dillaboy, 20-year-old sewer worker of 138 W. Market street, pleaded not guilty in municipal court Thursday to drunk driving here October 27.

Dillaboy was booked after police observed his car weaving in and out of southbound traffic on Mission street. He admitted having "five drinks" and flunked a sobriety test at Junipero Serra hospital, officers said.

Case of Robert D. Miller, collection agency head, on a shoplifting charge at King's Market last month, was held over for arraignment next Thursday. The 32-year-old resident of 6 Bismark street is accused of taking six pairs of nylons.

Louis A. Martin, 387 Ellis street, pleaded guilty to being drunk here October 20 and forfeited $25 cash bail.

Bocci suspended a 20-day jail sentence for William M. Casillas, 1114 Tennessee street, San Francisco, after he pleaded guilty to driving with a revoked license here October 15. Casillas must pay a $200 fine within 20 days or go to jail, Bocci ordered.

DRUNK DRIVING, 3 OTHER COUNTS HIT SF MAN, 41, HERE

A 41-year-old San Francisco electrical worker was arrested here early Saturday morning on a drunk driving charge and three other counts after he went through an arterial and a stop light on Mission street.

Booked was Thomas A. Milan, 134 Valencia street, who admitted having "at least 10 drinks" after he flunked a sobriety test at Junipero Serra hospital.

Police said Milan's car swerved from behind a car stopped for an arterial at the intersection of Flournoy and Mission streets, sped through the intersection and then went through a red light at Mission and San Jose. Milan also failed to produce a driver's license when he finally was stopped at the corner of Mission and Vista Grande.

The driver's wife, Ruth, also was in the car, but was released by police although they said "she appeared to be intoxicated."

Milan posted $1000 bond and is scheduled to appear in municipal court next Tuesday.

Duffy Horsehiders Fall To Shells, 4-3; Deadlock Tire Kids

Duffy's Corner horsehiders wondered if they'd forgotten their shamrocks after losing a 4-3 closie to Johnny Shells Saturday and getting no better than a 3-3 tie with Larry Barrett Tires, in a time limit affair Sunday.

The Irish kids got all their runs in one basket against the Shells ... a three-run second inning. Terry Christman's three walks in the same frame gave the Shells two runs. After knotting the count in the next inning, the Shellmen got two hits in the fifth for the winning tally.

Eddie Barazoto started for the winners but yielded to Eddie Alvarez, who was tough in the clutches. Twice Lowell Creighton's team got the sacks full but couldn't score.

Christman and reliefer Barry Krohn fanned 11 of the enemy and held them to three singles. But Duffy's five hits were too scattered to do much damage.

Sunday's tilt was stopped in the eight frame after going past the two-hour limit. Ludwigsen started for the Creightons. He was touched for three hits and a trio of runs in the second. The Duffymen fought back to even the count, with single tallies in the fourth, fifth and seventh. Billy Hix and Mike McCoy finished on the hill for their respective teams.

Tom McHugh's double and single accounted for two Duffy runs.

The two teams clash again tomorrow (Saturday) in an 11 a.m. tilt at Balboa Park.

PANTHERS CHILL RAM FROSH-SOPH WIN STREAK, 52-0

Detoured off a two-game winning streak Thursday as Burlingame whacked them, 52-0, Westmoor's downtrodden Frosh-Sophs hoped to redeem themselves this Thursday afternoon against pass-happy San Mateo (3-2.)

Burlingame's yearlings padded their second place spot convincingly last week as they caught the Rams flatfooted. Three blocked punts, four fumbles and two intercepted passes ruined Westmoor as they receipted for their third setback.

"We just couldn't do anything right," wailed Coach Rod Losberger. "We made too many mistakes, and Burlingame really made the best of them."

The Panthers splurged for two tallies in the first and second periods, three more in the third quarter and a final spurt in the last period.

"I was quite disheartened," Losberger continued, "when Burlingame brought back its first stringers after taking such a big lead in the second half."

Blingum got a 13-0 first period lead on short shots by Don Glasgow and Dennis Joost and the latter's conversion. They made it 26-0 at the half on a 55-yard pass interception by Brian Mackwood and Joost's four-yard smash.

Mackwood took the third quarter kickoff 70 yards for a TD, and a few minutes later Dave Nofziger returned a punt 80 yards for the sixth Panther score. Late in the period, the Rams bobbled again and Jim Bledsoe scampered 60 yards for the counter.

Blingum's final outburst came on a 25-yard excursion by Lou Klemme in the last period.

The whitewash didn't allow Losberger much cause to praise many of his boys, but he did cite the work of Leonard Guum, offensive center and linebacker, for "an outstanding job."

McGAHEY & OLSON AGAIN LEAD LOOP BY 2 FULL GAMES

McGahey & Olson's keglers jumped back into a two-game lead in the Daly City-Colma League Tuesday night with a 2-1 nod over Carmona Chemical, while runner-up Brisbane took a split-decision loss from Paul's Flowers.

Three teams—San Pedro Lunch, Westlake -Homes and Towne House—are knotted for third with 16-11 marks. Town House swept its series with Carlo's Pizzeria. Westlake's bowlers split-decisioned Bank of America and San Pedro Lunch lost by a 1-2 count to Luce Meats.

Other results found sweeps by Plaza Furniture over Donnellan Realty and Vince & Fred's over Thur Meats. Lowly Edisco grabbed a 2-1 verdict over Daly City Cleaners.

High series went to P. Purporo of San Pedro Lunch as he aggregated 573 on games of 164, 218 and 191. Top singles was a 224 second game by Wally Kearney of Westlake Homes. He added games of 190 and 154 for a 568 series.

Del Fehl of San Pedro Lunch and Towne House's B. De Lucca were tied for individual honors going into Tuesday's action with 182 averages in 24 games.

Colma Trojans Bow, 6-0, In 'Sudden Death'

Colma school Trojans bowed to South San Francisco, 6-0, in a sudden-death overtime period last Thursday at Marchbanks park, after playing the South City gridders to a 0-0 deadlock in the regular four periods.

Because the two teams' previous encounter had ended in a tie, the two coaches agreed to settle the stalemate with an overtime period.

S.S.F., after being held by a strong Colma line, slipped a pass into the end zone to broke the season-long tie.

Colma Girls Cheer On Homeroom Gridders

Girls at Colma school have been cheering on their respective homerun touch-tackle football teams, and the following cheering sections are leading in the eighth grade:

Mrs. Kolias' Black Hawks, Mrs. Louise Zucco's Cougars, Mrs. Florence Fennessey's Dragons and E. White's Hound Dogs.

Pacing the seventh grade noisemakers are: Robert La Cava's Daddy-O's, Mrs. Eunice Loewke's Colma Cats, William Bell's Gamblers and Mrs. Berry's Screaming Eagles.

The estimated area of the Panama Canal Zone is 553.8 square miles, 170.2 square miles of water and 383.6 square mlies of land.

FATAL 9TH FRAME SOCKS DC REDLEGS OUT OF FIRST SPOT

A 9-8 loss to the Gino Benedetti nine last week knocked the Daly City Redlegs out of first place in the National Winter Baseball League.

The ninth inning brought downfall for the locals as they made five errors and yielded six runs to hit the skids.

Rick Kayne fanned 14 in going the distance for the losers, allowing nine hits while his mates collected 10. Second sacker Ed Coleman was big sticker with four for five.

Capitol Glass picked up its third straight win to take over first place. The Redlegs, who meet Southern Pacific tomorrow at Potero Hill, are tied for second with Swiss-American. Both clubs have 3-1 records.

'Cinch' Seen Tonight—Jeff Duels Puny Scots

Barring an earthquake or H-bomb blast, Jefferson's win-starved Indians expect to end their famine this Friday night with a triumph over Carlmont's feeble eleven at Sequoia.

For the first time this year, the Indians enter the 8 o'clock tussle as heavy favorites. The Scots hold down the North PAL basement with a 0-4 slate.

Carlmont's woes mounted two weeks ago when 14 of their players were booted off the team for a nude swimming incident. With only about 20 men left, Carlmont doesn't figure to pack much of a sting.

Vallejo Spoiler

Joe McGrath's huskies are anxious for this one. Their anger increased Friday when Vallejo broke a tie in the last three minutes to score a 19-12 win. It was the Tribe's second exhibition loss and their fourth in five games. In league play, Jeff knotted Burlingame, 0-0, lost to San Mateo, 20-7, and fell to Hillsdale, 33-20. Given a break here and there the Indians would be over the .500 mark.

McGrath doesn't foresee much trouble tonight and plans to sweep the bench. Four Indian regulars are nursing bad legs and won't see much action. They're End Tom Cloutier, tackle Jim Farley, Guard Lou Arrighi and Fullback Lee Casentini. Fortunately, their labors may not be needed.

Moving in for Casentini will be George Domenici, who played well Friday after Lee was hurt in second quarter action.

Line Changes

Carlmont's top guns are QB Ron Sweet, flanker Chris Jessen and FB Gary Fritzler. Despite their reduced roster, the Scots played exceptional ball Friday in losing a tight 6-0 no-count battle to Sequoia. Carlmont skidded to Capuchino, 20-0, Hillsdale, 13-12, South City, 27-19, and Burlingame, 20-6. They hold a 20-6 practice win over Serra, however. The Padres tripped Jeff, 25-13.

Friday's debacle was a heartbreaker. Outplayed in the first half and behind 12-0 at the midway mark, Jeff rallied to knot it early in th fourth period.

Jeff Comeback

Canty's pass theft paved the first Indian stampede. He picked it off on the Jeff 35 and hauled it back 29 yards. Four plays later, Domenici cracked over from the one.

Bob Berry then recovered George McNutt's onside kick and Jeff rolled anew. Paul Tapia capped it with a four-yard toss to Scott for 12-all.

The North Bay League champs, however, sealed it via a freak play with the clock ticking out. Bill Reed started off tackle, fumbled the hide, then caught it in mid-air and streaked 42 yards to paydirt.

Vallejo clicked in the first period on a 10-play, 60-yard maneuver. A 29-yard pass gave them TD number two midway in the second quarter.

Tapia Sharp

Jeff could have made it closer, hadn't Canty dropped a perfect pitch in the end zone from Tapia on the last play of the first half. Ryan also bobbled a direct hit from Paul. All in all, Tapia had a fine evening, hitting 10 for 19, with only one intercepted.

Drawing praise from the head man were Bill Riedstra, of course, and Scott. The latter snared five passes for 85 yards and looked good both ways.

The Tribe got only 46 ground yards but Tapia's marksmanship accounted for 144. Vallejo's 176 yards included 52 upstairs. Jeff trailed in first downs, 11-9.

Winless Tribe Yearlings Hold Loop-Leading Caps To 'Close' 25-0 Victory

Coach Bob Watt's winless Jefferson Frosh-Sophs ran into steamrolling Capuchino last Friday and escaped on the short end of a respectable 25-0 score.

Loss for the Tribe yearlings was their fifth of the campaign and their fourth shutout. But, as Watt pointed out, "It wasn't too bad considering the Caps are unbeaten and one game away from the title."

The Mustangs scored in each period as Watt's crew played one of its best games to hold down an expected avalanche.

Cap QB Darrell Webster got the first six-points on a two yard sneak in the initial period and went over the same way from the Jeff three in the second quarter.

Lynn Raymond padded his loop scoring leadership with two touchdown bursts in the second half. He sprinted 35 yards on a reverse for one and swept 25 yards around end for the final Cap tally.

Two deep Jeff marches, featured by Pete Garcia's passing, were halted short of paydirt. The Indians got to the Cap 12 in the second period and reached the Mustang 9 early in the fourth quarter.

Watt cited an "overall" team effort, but singled out linemen Bob Nielson and John Dean and backs Garcia, Jim Ahern, John Margaroni and Jerry Kennedy.

'GUNMEN' TO INVADE COLMA LAND

Wyatt Earp wouldn't have a chance this Sunday at the Ray Obbotoni pistol range in Colma.

Some 80 law enforcement officers from Daly City to Palo Alto will come armed for the annual San Mateo County Police Pistol Team Championship, which starts at 9:30 a.m. under Camp Perry course competition.

The shootin' will be in five divisions and 15 trophies will be at stake.

First divisions is open and will pit all police, sheriffs officers, reserves, special and deputy sheriffs in San Mateo county.

Second match is open to regular full time officers only. This is the division captured by the Daly City aggregation last year but they will have to be on their guns to whip a highly touted South San Francisco quartet this year.

Match 3's for reserves and special deputies, and the fourth round of competition will find the cities' police chiefs squaring off.

In the fifth setto, Sheriff Earl Whitmore will draw beads against that redoubtable gunman, Judge Thomas L. Bocci, in a carry-over of a shooting feud that started last year.

Following the match competition, a turkey shoot will be held.

Both Daly City and Broadmoor police departments will send their pistol contingents to the match.

'REVIVED' SF STATERS BOP CAL AGGIES, 10-0; FACE SACTO 11 NEXT

Still riding high over last week's corking 10-0 upset of the previously unbeaten Cal Aggies, Coach Joe Verducci's rejuvenated San Francisco State gridmen go after their third Far Western Conference win Saturday against winless Sacramento State.

The victory over the league leaders gave the Golden Gators a 2-1 loop record and put them back in the running for an upper-bracket finish.

The Staters pulled the reversal on Bob Rodrigo's field goal and Sanford Malnick's touchdown smash.

All season, the Gators have a 3-5 record. They wind up the campaign next week against Chico State.

Rams Revengeful For Los Altos Tilt

Dutch Meyer's Westmoor varsity will be out to settle or lessen an old score this Friday afternoon when they return to Los Altos as underdogs in a scrap starting at 3 o'clock.

Victimized 39-0 by the potent Los Altos squad early last month, the Rams will have to pull out all the stops to make it close this time. Meyer has a healthy respect for the LA passing attack, but thinks his boys have improved considerably since the first encounter.

The Rams breezed through tough scrimmages early this week and figure to be in good shape. Lone regular on the injured list is right tackle Jim Lansing, with a bruised elbow.

The Ram terminals will be dependable Carby West and Sid Swanson. Bob Simi goes at left tackle, and Steve Robinson and Paul Giomi are two top guards.

Meyer's troops stand 0-4 for the year as their thre other defeats were administered by Sunnyvale, 39-0, Cubberley, 46-6, and South City's Jayvees, 19-6.

After Los Altos the Rams meet the Riordan Jayvees next Wednesday and conclude their baptismal campaign November 21 against Cubberley.

Jeff Lightweights Lose Doubleheader To Carlmont Quints

Jefferson's lightweight cagers went down in defeat Tuesday in a pair of North PAL tilts with Carlmont in the Scot gym.

A field goal in the last seconds tripped the Indian 10's, 31-29, and the in the nightcap the 20's were overwhelmed, 52-31.

Loss for the 10's gave them a 4-2 record. San Mateo, Westmoor and Carlmont were deadlocked for first in the tight race with 5-1 records entering yesterday's action.

Mike Orlich's 20's are 2-4 for the campaign. They dropped a 33-32 decision to Half Moon Bay last week, while the Jeff 10's rolled, 36-27.

Orlich claims the loop's top scorers in both divisions as Gordy Tydingco led the 10's pack with 63 points after five game sand Roy Reitz was the most productive 20's player in the circuit with 77 for the same number of contests. Again HMB last week, Tydingco potted 14 and Reitz got 15.

The Indian fives met Hillsdale yesterday down south.

7 Indian Varsity Harriers In N. Coast Trials Today

Finishing fifth in the PAL finals last week, Jefferson's varsity cross country squad invades Palo Alto today (Friday) for the North Coast Section trials on the Stanford course.

Entered for the Tribe will be sparkling Andy Estigoy, Al Davila, Gary Romriell, Dan Anderson, Bud Pollard, John Nichols and Wayne Harris.

Estigoy stands a good chance against Carlmont's Tom Jent, who won the PAL title last week in 10:19. Andy finished a dismal 21st in the jaunt due to a queasy stomach. Davila got up for 10th, Romriell was 29th, Anderson took 31st and Pollard came in 36th.

Palo Alto captured the varsity title with a low tally of 35 points. Next came Carlmont, 43; Lincoln, 101; San Mateo, 114; and Jeff, 128.

The Indians entered the meet with a seasonal record of 4-2. Estigoy was the big factor, grabbing five first places for the campaign. His lone loss was to Jent in the Carlmont setback.

Westmoor's harriers took third in the Frosh-Soph showdown last week. San Mateo was the victor with 43 points, Carlmont had 61, Westmoor 92, Burlingame 96, Lincoln 148, South City 159, Capuchino 164, and Hillsdale 173.

The Rams also copped second behind Palo Alto in the jayvee event. The Vikes had 51 points, Rams 52 and Carlmont 55.

South City's Stireman Named 'Player Of Week'

South City's Jim Stireman, a converted end, has been named North PAL "Player of The Week" for his outstanding job Friday as the Warriors toppled Capuchino, 7-6. Playing at halfback for the first time, Jim scored the Warrior touchdown and added the clinching extra point. He was the game's top ground gainer with 92 yards in 18 carries.
